

Steps to Business Success Workshop

So you're considering starting a business, or you are already in business startup mode. Everything seems overwhelming at first, where do you start. We will discuss all the areas where changes may be required, dispelling some of the myths about on-line selling, the balance between business and personal time, the importance of setting goals, and the importance of surrounding yourself with mentors.

Join Doug Tardif at the CMHA Steps to Success workshop and learn about the transformative steps you can take in your personal and business life to enjoy success in your business enterprise.
